

11 DIE TRAPPED IN HOTEL FIRE

Faithful Wife Killed by Crazy Lover

GUESTS LEAP FOR LIFE WHEN FLAMES LICK FIRE ESCAPE

OLD FRAME HOSTELRY SCENE OF TRAGEDY IN MACON, GA.
EXPLOSION CAUSE
Stairs Blown Away by Blast; Half Block Goes Up in Smoke.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Macon, Ga.—Three persons are known to have lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the Brown House, a frame hotel here early Monday, and the death list would be increased to 11 when the ruins had been searched.

The Brown House was the oldest hotel in the city. The flames from the wooden structure, spread to adjoining buildings, burning practically half of the block from Plum street to Poplar street.

Many Are Injured.
Ten persons, suffering injury from burns or from jumping from the second and third stories of the hotel, are under treatment at the local hospitals.

Starting with an explosion of chemicals in an adjacent drug store, which blew in the side of the structure, the fire quickly shut off the escape of many of the hotel guests. Finding the stairways blown away by the force of the explosion and the fire occupies almost instantly enveloped in flames, those in the front part of the building were forced to leap from windows on the lower floors. Men on the side-walks saved many women from injury by catching them in their arms. Between 100 and 150 persons were registered.

Heads Secret Service

Williams J. Burns, famous international detective, who has been appointed by Attorney General Daugherty to be director of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, has been a sleuth all his life. The great detective and the attorney general are old friends. They were boys together in Columbus, Ohio. Mr. Daugherty regards Detective Burns as many others do—as one of the foremost detectives of the world.

The selection of Burns to head the department of justice bureau of investigation is believed to be but a preliminary step in the move toward the consolidation of all of the federal government's detective forces, with the exception of the intelligence departments of the army and navy, and there is little doubt that Mr. Burns will head the merger.

A new picture of William J. Burns.

$400,000 INCREASE COURT IS ARSENAL IN BANK DEPOSITS IN MURDER TRIAL

City Gets 5 $80,000 Checks, Two-Thirds of High School Bonds.

Bank deposits in Janesville were swelled by $400,000 Monday, when City Treasurer W. J. Lennartz deposited a cashier's check for $50,000 in each of the five local banks. The money is the first payment made here by the First Wisconsin National bank, Milwaukee, on the $500,000 bond issue for the building of the new high school.

Under terms of the sale two months ago the money was to be left in the Milwaukee bank for a certain period of time with interest. The $400,000 now received will be available for paying off the contractors, J. P. Culver & Son, as work progresses. No payments have been made as yet.

Bonds are now being printed in the amount of $100,000 for delivery to the First Trust and Savings bank, Chicago, to provide money for the laying of the big outfall sewer along Eastern avenue. As soon as the bonds are delivered City Treasurer Lennartz will have an additional $100,000 to distribute among the local banks. Word was received Monday by City Attorney Roger G. Cunningham that the transcript of proceedings in the sewer bond issue has been fully approved and that the Chicago bank is ready to receive the bonds.

FALLS DEAD AS RESULT OF HURT TWO MONTHS AGO

Kenneth—The body of William Frederick Kresal was picked up on the Middle street bridge Monday morning by the police ambulance and taken to St. Catherine's hospital, in a winter coat, to be buried.

Two months ago Kresal was caught between the dry wagon, which he drove for the Allan Tannery, and a box car.

Internal injuries received at that time are thought to have been the cause of his death Monday.

FRIDAY'S STORM WAS BILLED FOR NORTH WISCONSIN

Friday's tornado-like storm hit Southern Wisconsin instead of the northern part of the state as had been forecast by L. E. Mead, local weather prophet, to this is not to be put off in a hundred times, he says.

"Janesville can congratulate herself that she is still on the map after this severe storm which I had billed for Northern Wisconsin," Mead stated Dr. Mead. "This is one of the Northern Wisconsin regular storm periods which probably hit us only once out of a hundred."

In the summer of 1913, on July 12 or 13, this special moon storm caused a cyclone in Minnesota and Northern Wisconsin.

"There was a part of a rainbow Friday night which was very gorgeous and if we do not get some dry weather now, we will have to say that even the rainbow is no good in its promises any more."

MARINES RUSHED TO PANAMA ZONE ON SUDDEN ORDERS

BATTLESHIP LEAVES NAVY WITH 400 LEATHERNECKS.
SUPPLIES HURRIED
American Patience at End in Costa Rica Territory Dispute.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Philadelphia.—The United States battleship Pennsylvania, with 400 marines for duty in Panama, aboard, passed out of the Canal Monday.

The exact destination of the force was not made known and officials of the Philadelphia navy yard declared not even the commanding officers knew the duty they were to perform on arrival in the Canal Zone.

Rush orders to prepare supplies for the marines who were sent here from their base at Quantico, Va., were received Sunday by telephone from the navy department and navy yard forces worked throughout the night leading the Pennsylvania with equipment for a prolonged stay away from the base.

The decision to augment American forces in the zone apparently was reached suddenly, as the Pennsylvania, which was enroute from New York to Pacific waters, was ordered to proceed to Philadelphia and take on the marines.

Patience Exhausted.
Washington.—American tolerance of Panama's defiance of the White award in the territorial dispute with Costa Rica has ended, and the Panama government has been notified by the state department that Costa Rica will proceed at once to take over disputed territory.

To guarantee Costa Rica protection in the execution of the terms of the territorial award, the United States government has ordered a battalion of marines to Panama.

Will Police Territory.
Officials explained that necessity for the use of force is not anticipated and that the marines have been ordered to the Panama-Costa Rican border to police the territory while officials of the Costa Rica government are talking charges of the section which Panama has for years defiantly refused to concede in the face of arbitral decisions against her.

Continuance Is Granted Burch and Madelynn

Los Angeles.—A week's continuance in entering their pleas to the indictments charging them with the murder of J. B. Kennedy was granted Monday to Mrs. Madelynn O'Connell and Arthur C. Burch, no the defendant's chief counsel, Paul W. Schenck, now in Arizona, could be present when the pleas were entered.

ARIZONA CAPITOL FLOODED; WATERS ARE GOING DOWN

Phoenix, Ariz.—Which Sunday night filled the Arizona state capitol building to a depth of two feet on the first floor and flooded several hundred homes in Phoenix and vicinity, by Tuesday morning the water had receded so far Monday that the first floor of the capitol was clear of water. Eighteenth avenue on the west end of the capitol grounds still was running with water several inches deep.

FREIGHTER LEAVES WITH RECORD CARGO

Chicago.—The Canadian freighter Westmont, steamed out of South Chicago Sunday with 42,000 bushels of corn, consigned to Depot Harbor, Canada. It was said to be the largest shipment of corn out of Chicago in history.

SANDY LEARNS DRY FACTS CONCERNING UNITED STATES

New York.—Sandy Duncan, a Scotch sailor, who for four years has been sailing between Calcutta and Shanghai, learned Monday that the United States had gone dry. He tried to have a bartender arrested for refusing to sell him a wee dram.

His ship steamed into Brooklyn and he immediately visited a place ashore where white aprons are worn.

"A glass of whiskey," said Sandy. He didn't believe the story he'd heard about prohibition, and he called at a police station to seek justice for "discrimination against a Scotchman."

When he heard the truth, he said he'd select ships sailing east to Suez hereafter.

Thursday Is Dollar Day

Thursday is another day in Janesville looked forward to by every person, male and female, big and little, young and old.

The big story of Dollar Day has been told in the Gazette Tuesday pages of real live stories.

No serial ever written by novelist from Robert Chambers to Marion Robinson has ever been more interesting.

What we are looking for now is something that we can buy, on which we can save money as that with that money saved we can buy something else, and keep it up until the family is supplied.

Dollar Day permits this.

Dollar Day has been an institution in Janesville for a long time. It is known from Elkhorn to Muskegon as a good day to come to Janesville.

Seventy-five years ago Janesville was a trading center for all this section. The merchants and the people to attract, but to add more customers who have not been in the habit of trading here.

Get the Gazette Tuesday afternoon and see what Dollar Day means to all of you.

BOARD OF REVIEW IN FINAL SESSION

Tuesday Morning Last Chance for Protests on Assessments.

Property owners will have their last opportunity to seek adjustments on real estate and personal property assessments Tuesday morning, when the city board of review is called for 10 a. m. Figures on the total assessed valuation will not be available for several days, City Assessor Frank L. Smith said.

"The time to protest assessments is tomorrow or next January," Mayor W. J. Monday. "The board is willing to listen to all cases, no matter how small the amount involved."

The hearing Tuesday is called for 10 a. m. Figures on the total assessed valuation will not be available for several days, City Assessor Frank L. Smith said.

LUTHERANS VOTE $60,000 TO AID INDIAN MISSIONS

Milwaukee.—A budget of $60,000 Monday was voted for the Indian missions of Arizona by the Evangelical Lutheran synod in session here.

A school will be established at the principal mission station.

William M. Greenberg, Milwaukee, was elected a member of the Northern College board. He had been elected a member of the Minnesota district; Theodore Hahn, Owosso, Mich., a member of the Michigan synod board; and the Rev. E. Seim, Yakima, Wash., a member of the board of Pacific coast.

NEW FEDERAL CHILD LABOR LAW ILLEGAL, HOLDING OF COURT

Greenboro, N. C.—Judge James R. Boyd, in Federal court Monday, held the new federal child labor law unconstitutional. The Owen-Kearns child labor law, which had been unconstitutional by 1912-1913, was upheld by the supreme court of the United States.

The law imposed a federal tax of 10 percent on the profits derived from products on which child labor was employed.

RED CROSS AIDE NABBED; CHARGED WITH LARCENY

Washington.—C. E. Wilson, second assistant treasurer of the American Red Cross, was arrested Monday, charged with larceny. Following an audit of his books, which showed, according to Director Livingston, a shortage of about $14,000. According to the police Wilson admitted shortages of more than $13,000 and attributed his misfortune to gambling on horse races. The loss, it was said, was covered by a surety bond.

U. S. SELLS SHIPS FOR $2,100 EACH

Washington.—The shipping board Monday was in a fair way of getting rid of the major portion of its "white elephants"—the war time wood-craft.

An announcement by the board contained the information that bids submitted by the Ship Construction and Trading corporation, of New York, of $2,100 each for 205 of the 255 wood-craft had been accepted.

Vice Chairman O'Connor of the board, commenting Monday on the sale, said the price was exceedingly low in view of the cost of the 255 vessels, recently estimated by the Navy Lasker at $250,000,000.

LINEMAN IS KILLED BY CURRENT FROM 2,300-VOLT WIRE

BARCKLEY SAMSON WORKER, DIES REPAIRING STORM DAMAGE.
FELL TO GROUND
Hurled 40 Feet Suffering Fractured Skull—Was Capable Worker.

Volunteering to help repair the damage done to the lines of the Janesville Electric company by the storm of Friday, Samson Barckley, 40, met death by the storm at 4 p. m. Saturday when he came in contact with a live blade of a disconnected switch on a pole on Center avenue near the Monterey bridge. He was thrown to the ground with such force that it fractured his skull. He took a current of 2,300 volts.

Barckley, former employee of the Janesville Electric company for whom he worked for six months prior to June when he returned to his position with the Samson Tractor company, hearing that the company needed assistance in repairing the damage done last night, volunteered to assist Saturday afternoon.

Alleged Robbers Landed in Jail

Chippewa Falls Police Land Men Wanted for Wabeno Crime.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chippewa Falls, Wis.—Chalmers B. Yeager of Green Bay, and Lawrence Leeper of Oconto, suspects in the Wabeno robbery in July, were arrested here Saturday by a police officer and the undersheriff, Patrick found on the men were believed to indicate intention to rob the Lumbermen's National bank here. They were taken to Grandon under heavy guard Monday.

The reward of $500 offered for the capture of Yeager will be divided equally between Chief Fishery and Undersheriff Kilpatrick.

Yeager in Gunman.
Undersheriff Kilpatrick said the men had been visiting at Lindsay, Wis. There, also, had been Alexander, and Bachman went from his home Sunday to return his wife to her home. Arrived at Lindsay, they had a conversation with the three, he said, and Alexander said he would accompany the Bachmans in their automobile. Bachman drove and in the front seat with him was his wife, Alexander, according to Bachman's story for the entire distance from Lindsay to Porterville, the night when he had been visiting at Lindsay. There, also, had been Alexander, and Bachman went from his home Sunday to return his wife to her home. Arrived at Lindsay, they had a conversation with the three, he said, and Alexander said he would accompany the Bachmans in their automobile. Bachman drove and in the front seat with him was his wife, Alexander, according to Bachman's story for the entire distance from Lindsay to Porterville, the night when he had been visiting at Lindsay.

Hardings Return from Cruise on Mayflower

Washington.—President and Mrs. Harding returned to Washington, shortly after 9 a. m. Monday, from their week-end cruise on the Mayflower.

FINDS MOONSHINE "PLANTED" IN ALLEY

Moonsshine is frequently "planted" in downtown alleys and along with the police officers, according to Charles Schaffner, who appeared in municipal court Monday on a charge of intoxication.

"Where did you get your liquor?" queried the court.

"I was looking down an alley and saw a fellow 'planting' some," was the reply. "When he had gone I went down and got it."

"How much did you leave there for it?" continued the court.

"Didn't leave anything—just drank some of it," returned Schaffner.

Fifty dollars and costs or 90 days in jail, pronounced Judge R. L. Maxwell.

The fine of $52.40 was paid by Schaffner's father. Schaffner said he had worked at the Samson plant until three months ago.

Two More Happy Bicycle Owners

Two more ambitious lads have won a bicycle for themselves. Both boys went over the top neck and today are riding one of the best made wheels in the world won by just a little effort.

Frank Lewis of Janesville and Elmer Greene of Allen's Grove are the lucky fellows with Kenneth Johnson of this city and William Caple of the city of Broadhead, the first two boys to make the goal.

There are others coming and this week will see an extra effort on each one's part as the contest is only scheduled to run until September the first. One week more to make the grade but one week ago Frank Lewis had only a matter of some few subscriptions to go to get the limited time interfere with your ambition if you are in the running, as one week of earnest endeavor is more than any live boy needs.

Call at the Circulation Department and get your standing and then let's go for a last big boost toward the best fun a boy ever has, the owning of a good bicycle such as the "World."

Spasm of Crime Hits Twin Ports

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Duluth.—Three suicides, a drowning and a probable fatal stabbing were reported to the Twin Ports police over the week end.

Charles Dwyer opened a closet in his home at Superior Saturday night and was met by the swinging body of his brother, John R. Dwyer. His health is believed to have prompted the suicide.

Julius Cook, reputed wealthy theater owner, was found dead in a downtown office at Duluth. He had shot himself through the right temple with a revolver.

Despondency caused Andrew Aho, inmate of a sanitarium, to take his life Sunday night with a shot gun.

Boys swimming in Lake Superior late Sunday, discovered the body of an unidentified middle aged woman.

An old time feud, said to have existed between Isaac Point and William Karjala, farmers, culminated Sunday in the probable fatal stabbing of Karjala on a farm across the Carlton county line. Point is in jail.

ALLEGED ROBBERS LANDED IN JAIL

Chippewa Falls Police Land Men Wanted for Wabeno Crime.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chippewa Falls, Wis.—Chalmers B. Yeager of Green Bay, and Lawrence Leeper of Oconto, suspects in the Wabeno robbery in July, were arrested here Saturday by a police officer and the undersheriff, Patrick found on the men were believed to indicate intention to rob the Lumbermen's National bank here. They were taken to Grandon under heavy guard Monday.

The reward of $500 offered for the capture of Yeager will be divided equally between Chief Fishery and Undersheriff Kilpatrick.

Yeager in Gunman.
Undersheriff Kilpatrick said the men had been visiting at Lindsay, Wis. There, also, had been Alexander, and Bachman went from his home Sunday to return his wife to her home. Arrived at Lindsay, they had a conversation with the three, he said, and Alexander said he would accompany the Bachmans in their automobile. Bachman drove and in the front seat with him was his wife, Alexander, according to Bachman's story for the entire distance from Lindsay to Porterville, the night when he had been visiting at Lindsay.

MARKETS RECEIVED BY GAZETTE OVER ITS LEASED WIRE

Every Monday you will find in the market columns of the Gazette a complete review of the livestock situation and the prices paid for the various kinds of livestock. This is of great value to the farmer and stock raiser.

Each day there is to be found in both the mail and some editions of the Gazette the full closing stock market and the financial news condensed and complete. These markets are received daily over the leased wire of the Gazette direct from the New York stock exchange.

Each evening the business man or the farmer may know what the market for stocks, bonds, sheep and cattle has been during the same day. He may also know what the grain market has been—the great barometer of business throughout the world. All this comes to the Gazette by its leased wire service direct from the market centers in to the Gazette office where it is received by the printer and the news is in the paper up to the last minute before going to press.

CHOOSES HUSBAND; WOMAN SHOT DEAD BY ANOTHER MAN

INSTANTLY KILLED BY CHARGE FROM SHOT-GUN.
SLAYER FUGITIVE
California Posse on Trail After Murder on Ranch in California.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Porterville, Cal.—Mrs. J. B. Bachman forced to choose between her husband and another man in the presence of both, elected to remain true to her vows and thus sealed her death, which came an instant later when the other man, Walter H. Alexander, it is charged, shot and instantly killed her Sunday night at the ranch home of Mr. Collings, stepfather of Alexander.

"I guess I'll stay here," Bachman says his wife replied.

That afternoon, Mrs. Bachman, who was a shot gun point blank at the woman. The charge struck her in the back and she fell dead.

The shooting took place at the ranch home of Mr. Collings, stepfather of Alexander.

Posse Seeks Slayer.
After the shooting, Alexander went away carrying the gun. It was said, and a sheriff's posse is searching for him.

Bachman told City Marshal Isham the story of the shooting and event immediately preceded by Mrs. Bachman had been visiting at Lindsay, Wis. There, also, had been Alexander, and Bachman went from his home Sunday to return his wife to her home. Arrived at Lindsay, they had a conversation with the three, he said, and Alexander said he would accompany the Bachmans in their automobile. Bachman drove and in the front seat with him was his wife, Alexander, according to Bachman's story for the entire distance from Lindsay to Porterville, the night when he had been visiting at Lindsay.

FOR WISCONSIN THE WEATHER

Showers and slightly warmer Monday night; Tuesday fair in west and central portions; showers extreme east portion.

Janesville thermometer readings, Monday, Aug. 22:

8 a. m.	61
9 a. m.	62
10 a. m.	63
11 a. m.	64
12 noon	65

STORM LOSS HERE AROUND $12,000

Insurance Adjusters Hurry Work on Payments for Razed Sheds.

There was little in Janesville Monday to indicate that there had been such a storm as struck here Friday night, but the work of the street department in clearing away debris and cutting down trees suspended dangerously in the air.

Losses in Janesville and vicinity by farmers having, however, been reported by local insurance agents will run approximately from $7,000 to $12,000.

Owing to the season when farmers are cutting tobacco and corn it is in such cases as possible so that the crops may be re-erected. One fortunate case of a farmer was reported by C. E. Evans, Nelson Cunningham, an insurance policy Wednesday on his tobacco stored in a shed which was destroyed Friday. He will collect $100 as a result.

Farmers who lost silos will experience losses regardless of whether they had insurance or not, owing to the high rate on silos. Few policies are written, according to Mr. Morse, for more than $300, while the cost of the silo is between $350 and $700.

CHICAGOAN INJURED WHEN HIT BY TIMBERS.

Walworth. — Ralph J. Butterfield, Chicago, was seriously injured, his chest being crushed, his cheek cut and his left leg broken, when he was hit by part of the roof of the barn on the W. B. Gates farm, near here, Friday, during the storm. He was visiting his sister, Mrs. Gates. He was taken to the Washington hospital, where it is said he will recover.

The lost "Double Decker" had its upper deck taken off by the wind while out on Lake Geneva, and the lower deck, with its engine and home on the lake were damaged.

The Johnson barn near Allen's Grove was burned when struck by lightning, silos were destroyed and orchards torn up.

Storm Swept Lake Geneva.

It was not until late Sunday that communication was opened with Lake Geneva and points about that section. All wires were cut off from both ends of the lake. The storm reached Chicago late Saturday night, and was found to be intense. The heaviest loss was to the destruction of the forest giants that fringe its borders. Giant oaks whose life span had been from a thousand years down were uprooted and tossed about.

The great ice house at Fontana was piled in a heap. Launches were torn from moorings and jawings tipped off. The storm struck about 10:30 and lasted only a few minutes. The clouds here presented the same appearance as in Janesville, lowering funnels minus the pendant spouts. From these sur-

ROCKEFELLER JR. STARTS FOR CHINA

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., photographed on his departure from New York for the Pacific coast.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., with his wife and daughter, have left New York for Vancouver to sail for China for the dedication of new buildings of the Peking Union Medical college, erected by the China medical board of the Rockefeller Foundation.

denly a spout dropped and in the path of harmless looking birds of clouds, trees were bent double, crushed to earth and everything in the path was swept away or damaged. No lives were lost. At the H. H. Bliss cottage a tree was blown against another standing close to the building, saving the cottage from demolition.

Janesville's new studio.—Hess's Portraits. 415 W. Milwaukee St. Advertisement.

OBITUARY

Inez M. Holland.

Funeral services for Inez M. Holland, who died suddenly in Madison, Wisconsin, were held at 2 p. m. Saturday from the Presbyterian church at Madison, Rev. Mr. Knox officiating. Burial was made in the Forest Park cemetery at Madison.

Miss Holland was born in Clinton, Ia., in 1871. She had been employed by the Samuel T. Taylor company here and made her home with her sister, Miss Edna Holland, who is employed at the University of Wisconsin, and who lives at 321 Madison street.

She is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Holland, the residue of said estate, to such other persons as are by law and said will entitled thereto, and for the maintenance and education of the inheritance tax, if any, payable in said estate.

Dated August 12th, 1921.

By the Court: CHARLES L. FIFE, County Judge.

E. D. McGowan, Attorney for Executor.

County Court, Rock County, Wisconsin.

In the Matter of the Will of Edward S. Davis, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that at a Regular Term of the County Court, to be held in and for said County, at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on the first Tuesday (being the 26th day) of September, 1921, at nine o'clock a. m., the following matter will be heard and considered:

The application of Alice A. Richards for the adjustment and allowance of her claim as executrix of the will of Edward S. Davis, late of the City of Janesville, in said County, deceased, and for the assignment of the residue of said estate, to such other persons as are by law and said will entitled thereto, and for the maintenance and education of the inheritance tax, if any, payable in said estate.

Dated August 19th, A. D. 1921.

By the Court: OSCAR N. NELSON, Register in Probate.

E. D. McGowan, Attorney for Executor.

Official Ordinance No. 95.

Sever and Water Main Extensions. Office of the Board of Public Works, Janesville, Wis., Aug. 16, 1921.

To whom it may concern:

The mayor and common council of the city of Janesville, having determined that sewer and water main extensions be made and paid for by special assessment upon that portion of the following named streets, to-wit:

In Sewerage District No. 11.

On Walker St. from the present sewer on Prairie Ave. to a point 175 feet east.

In Sewerage District No. 15.

On Grace Court from the proposed sewer on Logan St. to a point 175 feet west.

Water Mains.

On Logan St. from Racine St. to Forest Park Boulevard.

On Grace Court from Logan St. to Eastwick Ave.

On Benton Avenue as laid out in separate subdivision from Milton Avenue to the east line of lot 42 of said subdivision.

On Benton Avenue from Racine Avenue to Caroline St.

On Myra Ave. from Washington St. to Frederick St.

On Linden Ave. from Oak Hill Avenue to the west line of lot 42 in Lovejoy's Addition to the City of Janesville.

On Pine St. from Mineral Point Avenue to Highland Avenue.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the Board of Public Works will meet on the 21st day of August at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at their office in the city hall of said city for the purpose of making such assessment and that all persons interested may appear and be heard upon the matter of the assessment and the apportionment of the expense of the said water main extensions among the lots, parts of lots and parcels of land fronting or abutting on each side of said street.

Notice is further given that at least one day prior to such hearing all persons having claims against the city or the city clerk's office a table intelligently exhibiting the sums proposed to be assessed on all the lots, parts of lot and parcels of land in each of said streets, which table shall be open to public inspection.

Signed: T. E. WELSH, Mayor.

E. G. CUNNINGHAM, E. H. HANSON, Board of Public Works.

HUNDREDS ATTEND MILITARY FUNERAL

Company "M" Men Pay Tribute to Sgt. Flynn, Killed in France.

While flags over public buildings were at half mast, the body of Sgt. John A. Flynn, killed in action in France in 1918, was lowered to its last resting place at Mt. Olivet cemetery Sunday afternoon. Hundreds of men were with him "over there" when he met his death, but their adieu as the fading sound of guns whispered the last notes of human grief.

Full military honors were paid the gallant soldier. Veterans of "M" company with whom he served, gathered at the home of 525 North River street at 1:30 and accompanied the body to St. Patrick's church where services were conducted by the Rev. Dean James F. Ryan.

Valley Is Pined

Under command of Lieut. Paul Grimshaw, the ex-servicemen marched to the cemetery with colors furled. There the final honors of the military were paid in the firing of the soldier's tribute by a squad. Many "M" company men from surrounding towns, members of the American legion of Janesville and Beloit; women of the Service Star legion and the Women's auxiliary of the American legion attended, in large numbers.

The funeral was in charge of E. J. Sartell, president of "M" company club, who also sounded taps. The firing squad consisted of Fred Flaherty, George Meyers, Carl Chebeck, Alfred Nelson, J. Hinton, Frank Craig, Ed. Parker, Charlie Main and Edgar. The casket was carried by William Warner and guarded by Serge George Strampe and August Knopp.

Lieut. Edlinson Here

Lieut. Edlinson, A. Fredrick and E. J. Sartell, president of "M" company club, who also sounded taps. The firing squad consisted of Fred Flaherty, George Meyers, Carl Chebeck, Alfred Nelson, J. Hinton, Frank Craig, Ed. Parker, Charlie Main and Edgar. The casket was carried by William Warner and guarded by Serge George Strampe and August Knopp.

Thanks were expressed Monday by President Sartell for the cooperation of the service organizations, men and women, and Undertaker Ed. McCue. These from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mrs. M. J. and daughter, Mark Hall, Cornelia, Charles Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. Van Wormer and daughter, Mrs. Martin and Kate Martin of Leavenworth, and John H. Jensen, Beloit; and James Sullivan, St. Paul.

BAND IN CONCERT AT PARK, TUESDAY; LEARY IS SOLOIST

Edmund Leary, popular tenor soloist, will sing two numbers as a feature of the seventh concert of the Bower City band to be given in court house park, Tuesday night. Director W. T. Thiele announces the following program, as selected by the Music committee, for this concert, starting at 8 p. m.

PART I.

1. March—"Semper Fidelis"..... Sousa

2. Overture—"Luzella"..... Dittus

3. Song..... Ed. Leary.

4. Selection—

(a) "Hallelujah Chorus"..... Wagner

(b) "Nightingale"..... Wagner

5. Overture—"The Pilgrims"..... Laurens (Intermission)

PART II.

1. Selection—"The Traveller"..... Verdi

2. Overture—"The Peasants"..... Suppe

3. Song—"Peggy"..... Peace

4. Overture—"The Peasants"..... Peace

5. Overture—"The Peasants"..... Peace

6. Overture—"The Peasants"..... Peace

7. Overture—"The Peasants"..... Peace

8. Overture—"The Peasants"..... Peace

9. Overture—"The Peasants"..... Peace

10. Overture—"The Peasants"..... Peace

BAND TO OCCUPY TERPSICHOREAN HALL

The Bower City band has leased Terpsichorean hall on the third floor of the Carl block, West Milwaukee and South Franklin streets, and will take possession September 15. It was announced Monday by the trustees, E. J. Sartell, Charles Webster and Burr V. Tolles. The quarters were sub-leased from the Lakota club. Terpsichorean hall was used by the cavalry troop last year. The band has had quarters over T. J. Ziegler company's store.

EIGHT DRAW $1 FINES IN MUNICIPAL COURT

Municipal court was widely populated with motorists Monday morning the result of police activity enforcing the new parking ordinance. Eight drivers were fined $1 and costs, or $2.40 each, when they pleaded guilty to this charge. William D. Rife, Ed. Guckelberger and Harry Anderson paid for parking in front of a fire hydrant while the following were fined for failure to park parallel on Milwaukee street: Arthur T. Smith, Walter Chapin, Adolph Edlinson, Louis Olsen, and Matthew Ellis.

Lewis Stokstad paid $17.40 for speeding on Milton avenue.

Nothing to Brag About.

"Did you make this stuff yourself?" "Your honor," replied the discouraged home brewer. "Just taste it and you won't need any further proof that I did."

A Liberal Guy.

"How about the booklet?" "Well, the landlord is liberal in a way. He advertises free use of the ocean."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Want Ads will sell your used furniture.

Advertisement.

WATCH AND WAIT

for Our Big Dollar Day Ad & Sale in Tomorrow's Gazette. for values and bargains, scattered to the four winds. Come here first. Prices and besides S. & H. Stamps Free.

2000 yards of 36-inch Unbleached Muslin, marked for Tuesday sale, 7 1/2c yard at.....

36-inch Bleached Shaker Flannel, a special 39c value, for Tuesday yard at..... 22c

Calicoes in light or dark colors, marked for Tuesday sale, yard..... 9c

Cotton Crash Toweling—about 1000 yards of this fine crash for Tuesday sale yard at..... 7 1/2c

WOMAN'S PLACE NOT AT ARMS PARLEY, ASSERT TWO MEMBERS OF FAIR SEX

Rep. Alice Robertson (left) and Miss Florence King.

Agitation for the appointment of a woman on the U. S. delegation to the disarmament conference which opens in Washington November 11 has met counter agitation from women sources. Representative Alice Robertson of Oklahoma and Miss Florence King, president of the National Women's Association of Commerce, do not believe that a woman should be placed on the delegation.

Find Body of Motor Boat's Victim in Lake

Elkhorn.—The body of Sam Thornley was found washed on the south shore of Lake Geneva Saturday night.

Thornley was an engineer on one of the Wisconsin Transportation Company's Lake Geneva boats. He was on the lake riding Thursday night when the high-powered motor racing boat driven by Edward Martin, Chicago, ran into him. The row boat was demolished and victim Thornley was killed or drowned in a question.

In either case, the motor boat was stopped as soon as possible and returned to the scene of the accident, but no relatives except a brother in Williams Bay. Mr. Martin paid all the expenses of the search and burial.

LEGION MEMBERS DEDICATE TABLET TO VERDUN HEROES

Verdun.—Members of the American Legion dedicated a tablet to the defenders of Verdun in the city hall here. The tablet bears an inscription stating it was dedicated to the men who "uttered the immortal words: They Shall Not Pass." Major John G. Emery, national commander of the American Legion, Franklin D. O'Brien, Philadelphia, Henry D. Lindsay, Dallas, and Col. Milton J. Freeman, Chicago, were decorated with the special medal of Verdun.

It gets the War-Ad department. Advertisement.

Weller Retains State Net Title

Milwaukee, Wis.—Abbie Weller of Milwaukee retained the Wisconsin state championship tennis title yesterday by defeating Art Hubbell of Chicago at the Town club courts. 3-5, 6-3, 10-8, 4-6, 6-3.

SEEKS DIVORCE FOR FAILURE TO SUPPORT

Charging her husband with cruelty and failure to support, Susan Ainsworth has filed suit in circuit court here for divorce from Francis A. Ainsworth, Johnston, Wis. Ainsworth's complaint states that they were married in Belvidere, Ill., September 7, 1915 and that he was cruel to her for three years following until on Christmas, 1918, he left her. Ainsworth was arrested and held for trial in municipal court here on a non-support charge. The complaint states, but he took a change of venue and the case has never come to trial in circuit court. The plaintiff has four children by a former marriage to a waitress in Cincinnati whom she obtained a divorce in 1910.

ANTISEL ISSUES DIPLOMAS TO 17

Seventeen diplomas have been issued by County Supt. O. D. Antisel the past three days to pupils finishing up work to allow them to enter high school. The following were given eighth grade rural school diplomas:

Alvin H. Griske, Russell Griske, Margaret Ellen Musterson, Harold Greiner, Louise T. Schaefer, Harold H. Klingberg, Clarence E. Field, Marjorie Robinson, Lawrence Heyerdahl, Mabel G. Mohs, George John Ahrens, Melvin Swan, Ross H. Marcus, Dorothy Wood, Helen Koval, Myrtle C. Newhouse and Lavigne Johnson.

Ten teachers took examinations at the court house Saturday for first, second and third grade school certificates.

LEAVES TO MANAGE STORE AT EAU CLAIRE

Walter Wolf, a member of the high school faculty the past year who has been the life saver at Goose Island beach this summer, will leave Thursday for his new location at Eau Claire, where he has taken a position with the Leath and company furniture store there. He will be succeeded as life guard for the remainder of the season by William Fern.

BOWLERS TO MEET WEDNESDAY NIGHT

A general meeting of the members of the Janesville Bowling association has been called for 8 p. m. Wednesday night at the city hall by Harry V. Ross, president of the association.

ELKS TO MEET.

Elks will hold a special meeting at 8 p. m. Tuesday. It is announced by Exalted Ruler O. C. Homberger.

HUSBAND AND SON HELD AS SLAYERS

Youth Charges Father Killed Mother in Strange Mystery Case.

[By Associated Press.]

Granite City, Ill.—The mystery surrounding the finding of a woman's body here a month ago, and erroneously identified as that of Mrs. Serena Gilliland, who later was found to have been divorced from Francis A. Ainsworth, Johnston, Wis. Ainsworth's complaint states that they were married in Belvidere, Ill., September 7, 1915 and that he was cruel to her for three years following until on Christmas, 1918, he left her. Ainsworth was arrested and held for trial in municipal court here on a non-support charge. The complaint states, but he took a change of venue and the case has never come to trial in circuit court. The plaintiff has four children by a former marriage to a waitress in Cincinnati whom she obtained a divorce in 1910.

Chief Clark declared the body is that of Mrs. Dora Dorman and on Monday arrested Arthur Dorman, 35, and John, 16, husband and son of the woman, on warrants charging murder.

The body was found more than a month ago in a shallow grave, and was identified and buried by Mrs. Mary Hull, Mrs. Gilliland's grandmother. Thomas L. Gilliland, husband of Serena, was arrested and accused of the murder. He was released last week after his wife was found in Cincinnati.

Although the elder Dorman denies knowledge of the murder, the younger Dorman, according to Chief Clark, confessed his father confided to him that he had murdered the woman.

DANE COUNTY FAIR WILL OPEN TUESDAY

Madison.—With $50,000 in premiums and purses offered, the Dane county fair will open Tuesday to continue for four days.

Many attractions have been booked, including The Duttons, who for years appeared with Ringling Brothers circus.

The racing program has attracted some of the best horses in the country.

NOTICE

Be sure and attend the big August Bantock Sale all this week. Second floor. J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS. Advertisement.

STUDENTS POINT OUT NEEDS OF RELIGION AT STATE UNIVERSITY

Adequate religious education and direction for students at the University of Wisconsin were urged in talks Sunday morning at the Methodist church by a team of young men representing Wesley Foundation.

"Bud" Garrison, war hero and law student at the university, spoke on the general subject of religious need at the state institution, and Ernest Watson, Whitewater, outlined the definite program put forth by Wesleyan Methodism for growth of the Foundation, including the construction of the new church building and enlargement of the social hall.

The Methodist gospel team and men's chorus conducted services in Elkhorn, Sunday night.

Filled to the brim with real energy. Your grocer handles it.

Dollar Day Bargain Dinner

FOR THURSDAY, AUGUST 25TH, ONLY

Regular 75c Table D'Hotel Chicken Dinner for 50c.

THE PARK INN

(Opp. Court House Park)

Dinner Served From 11 A. M. to 8:30 P. M.

FUR SALE • AUGUST FUR SALE •

The Golden Eagle

Levy's

August Sale of Furs Saves You 25%

The furs you buy now will be worth considerable more later on. First choice garments particularly distinctive and lovely at a great concession in price, should induce every Woman and Miss with the purchase of furs in mind to take full advantage of the very exceptional values offered in the remarkable value-giving event.

Hudson Seal Coats beautifully trimmed with Marten (skunk), Squirrel, genuine Beaver, 36 and 40 inches long, almost one-half last year's prices.

Mink Wraps, Mink Capes, Nearseal, Muskrat, Marmot, Beaverettes and Sealine Coats.

Buy Furs Now!

A deposit will keep your coat until you need it.

Autumn Modes Suits, Coats, Gowns

Utmost in value giving. Now on display. You save 10% on your new winter cloth coat by making your selection now.

FUR SALE • AUGUST FUR SALE •

2000 yards of 36-inch Unbleached Muslin, marked for Tuesday sale, 7 1/2c yard at.....

36-inch Bleached Shaker Flannel, a special 39c value, for Tuesday yard at..... 22c

Calicoes in light or dark colors, marked for Tuesday sale, yard..... 9c

Cotton Crash Toweling—about 1000 yards of this fine crash for Tuesday sale yard at..... 7 1/2c for Our Big Dollar Day Ad & Sale in Tomorrow's Gazette. for values and bargains, scattered to the four winds. Come here first. Prices and besides S. & H. Stamps Free.

WATCH AND WAIT

TP BURSCO

JANESVILLE-WIS

VERSAILLES PACT
MAY BE REVIVED

Necessary to Protect U. S.
Rights With Germany Is Possibility.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

Washington—The strategy behind the United States government's negotiations with Germany over the making of a new treaty is just coming to light. It is one of the most interesting inside stories which official Washington has developed since the war.

The truth is President Harding and Secretary Hughes have been loath to announce to the world that the plan whereby congress was to make peace by resolution is, after all, ineffective. The executive branch of the government is finding out that it alone cannot make peace with Germany and that the Germans are not jumping toward the light at the mere nod of Washington, but are actually asking for a voice in making the treaty—a procedure in contrast to the moments at Versailles, when the allies framed a treaty and called the German delegates into the room and commanded them to sign on the dotted line.

When congress passed the joint resolution declaring peace, it was believed that peace had been accomplished and that a formal proclamation of peace would follow in the next course of events. The department of state opposed such a course, putting up the argument that if America announced by proclamation that she is at peace with Germany, the United States would be playing its last card, so to speak, and would have no leverage on Germany in the negotiations of a peace treaty. So the proclamation of peace treaty, pending the outcome of the parleys between American Commissioner Drexel in Berlin and the German government.

Germans Have Answer.
But the last all the weeks the white house and state department have been reticent about the negotiations and, significantly enough, denials have been made of various reports as to whether the Versailles treaty would be re-submitted. Members of the irreconcilable group in the senate have stated positively their conviction that the Versailles treaty would be re-submitted to the senate. But the truth of the matter, it now appears, is that nobody in the senate or even the executive branch of the government can say what the course of the American government will have to be. The Germans alone have the answer. And this is why:

The American commissioner in Berlin approaches the German government and says in effect:

"The American congress has just passed a resolution of peace in which the rights of the United States under the Versailles treaty must be safeguarded. That is an instruction from congress which we can't ignore. Now we know it will take months to work out a new treaty with all the important clauses of the Versailles treaty retained so we suggest a temporary arrangement or agreement in which Germany pledges herself to make a treaty with the United States in which the rights given America under the Versailles treaty are retained by America."

In other words, the United States has tried to get a reaffirmation of the Versailles treaty in exchange of the negotiation of a formal treaty of peace with Germany. If Germany declines, then America simply says: "Don't forget we signed the Versailles pact and we can simply ally with that reservation, to include the League of Nations covenant and Shantung and we still maintain intact all the economic and reparations clauses which relate to our rights."

Would Re-submit Pact.
Should Germany therefore, decline to make an agreement pledging America all the rights which the United States originally obtained at Paris, then the Versailles pact must be submitted with reservations. The Germans are confronted with an alternative. They do not imagine that an irreconcilable group in the United States senate will fight to the death any plan to re-submit the Versailles treaty, but on the other hand, even the irreconcilable group will have to bow to the inevitable if President Harding and Secretary Hughes announce that no other course is open to America to get peace with Germany. If the German government, on the other hand, approves the memorandum handed her by American Commissioner Drexel for a temporary peace agreement which is to precede the making of a new treaty later on, the embarrassments which have been eliminated. Word from Berlin is eagerly indeed anxiously awaited for it will tell the story of whether a peace treaty is feasible or whether the Versailles pact will have to be revived.

Dubious Commitment.

Mrs. O'Brien—"They say it's no polite to be helped twice, Mr. Flanery, but you'll take another piece of my cake, won't you?"

Flanery—"Orrade O! will that, Mrs. O'Brien. Shure, it's the height of politeness to take a second piece of such cake as this."—Boston Transcript.

Her Drastic Action.

Mrs. S. Jan-So poured oil on the forty thieves.

"Whatever dust you have accumulated elsewhere will be laid right here," she declared.—Kansas City Star.

Hard to Handle.

"Then you don't care for jazz music?"

"I have nothing against it," said the musical critic. "But there's no shop jargon you can write about it."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Plaintiff.

Mrs. K-H—"Does my husband get good pay, Mrs. Rooney?"

Mrs. Rooney—"Well, he would, Mrs. Kelly, if it wasn't for shtirlin' so often for better pay."—Boston Transcript.

MAJESTIC

LAST TIMES TONIGHT.

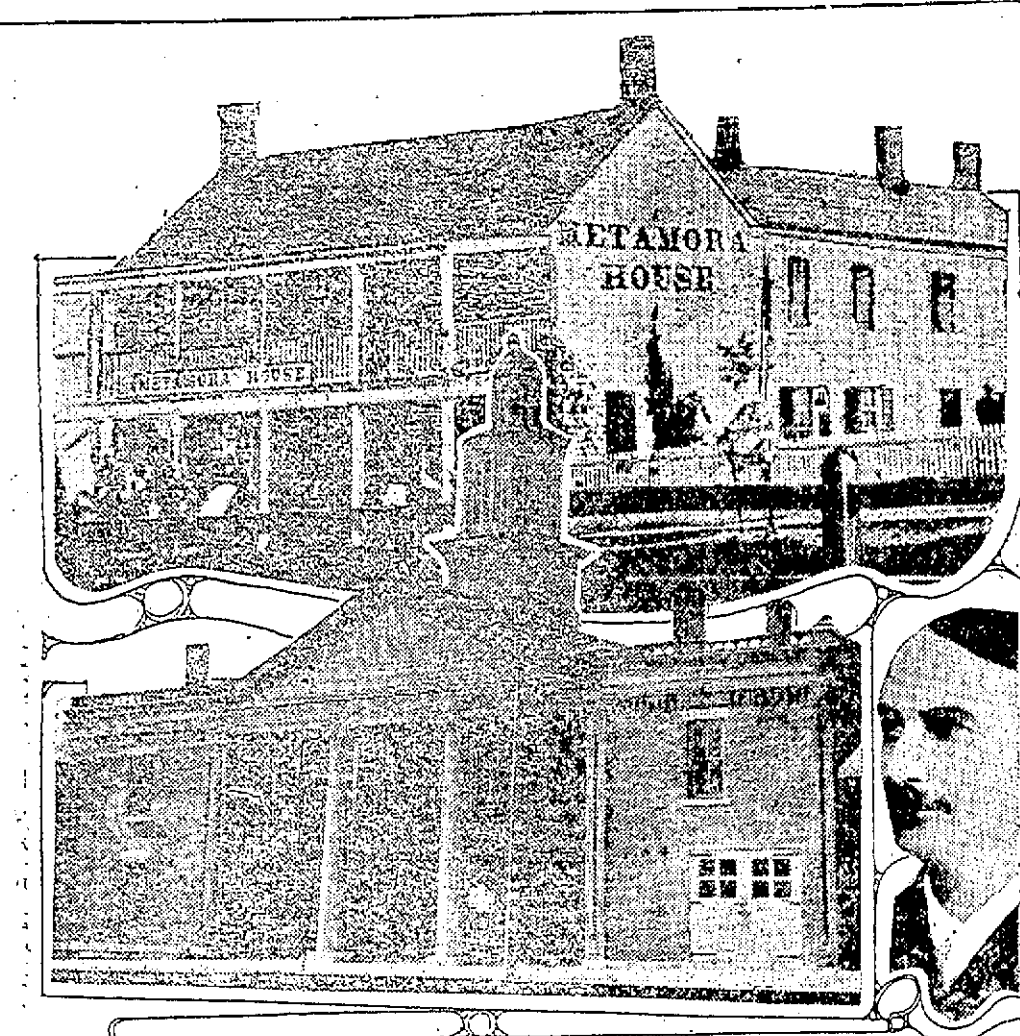

Eva Novak

—IN—

"Wolves of the North"

And COMEDY.

Courthouse of Lincoln Fame to Be Saved as Historic Relic

Woodford county courthouse at Metamora (below); Metamora hotel, on whose porch Abraham Lincoln told his stories, and J. Cassius Irving.

Metamora, Ill.—Illinois' oldest courthouse, the historic structure at Metamora in Woodford county where Lincoln and other great lights of the legal profession pleaded cases during the forties and fifties, will be formally dedicated to the state on Wednesday, August 25. The county ordered the ancient building to the state and the legislature unanimously accepted the gift. The next act will be the public exercises in connection with the transfer. Former Governor Joseph W. Pifer of Bloomington will deliver the principal address and there will be other speakers, including J. Cassius Irving of Metamora, who saved the famous Paragawill at Partidge Point, cut walnut trees and shaved them for the shingles upon the roof, burned the lime for the mortar and plaster, and secured the lumber for the building required for the foundations and the chimneys. He charged the county of Woodford just $4,000 for the job, perhaps one-tenth of the cost of the type of building now erected today.

His workmanship was honest and substantial, it is demonstrated by the fact that the old-time citadel of justice is still in good condition. Erected in 1815, its main structure is a simple, unadorned, and always "put up" at the equally historic Metamora House, conducted for a half-century by Mrs. Sears. Years afterwards, when touring Europe, he wrote a series of letters for publication in the metropolitan papers of the United States. In one of these he alluded to the snow on the streets of Paris as being of the color of the linoleum in the Metamora House during the second week of court.

The lawyers found the ample porches of the old-time tavern ideal upon which to exchange stories after court had adjourned. Lincoln, who was the leading narrator, was always surrounded by an attentive group. Cassius Irving owns the hotel which was always occupied by Lincoln. The great one-story gateway came to Metamora on horseback as the railroad was not constructed into Metamora until after the Civil war.

Was County Seat.

For more than 50 years Metamora was the county seat of Woodford county, but the more enterprising Eureka succeeded in inducing the voters to transfer it in 1857 and, since then, Metamora has lost much of its former activity. The old courthouse was deemed to the city and has since been used as a theater, public meeting place and for other purposes. The local post of the American Legion has quarters there. Civil war veterans also meet there, and with old-timers recall the days of the long ago when Metamora was a bustling village and was the seat of most of the litigation of central Illinois. It was the headquarters of the Eighth judicial district before the conflict between the north and the south and was regarded in those days as one of the future great cities of the state.

The railroad, with one exception passed Metamora by and the loss of the county seat was the climax, a blow from which the place has never recovered.

Days of Memories.

A halo of rare old memories clusters around the venerable structure. Robert Ingersoll, great orator and lawyer, and always "put up" at the equally historic Metamora House, conducted for a half-century by Mrs. Sears. Years afterwards, when touring Europe, he wrote a series of letters for publication in the metropolitan papers of the United States. In one of these he alluded to the snow on the streets of Paris as being of the color of the linoleum in the Metamora House during the second week of court.

The lawyers found the ample porches of the old-time tavern ideal upon which to exchange stories after court had adjourned. Lincoln, who was the leading narrator, was always surrounded by an attentive group. Cassius Irving owns the hotel which was always occupied by Lincoln. The great one-story gateway came to Metamora on horseback as the railroad was not constructed into Metamora until after the Civil war.

Was County Seat.

For more than 50 years Metamora was the county seat of Woodford county, but the more enterprising Eureka succeeded in inducing the voters to transfer it in 1857 and, since then, Metamora has lost much of its former activity. The old courthouse was deemed to the city and has since been used as a theater, public meeting place and for other purposes. The local post of the American Legion has quarters there. Civil war veterans also meet there, and with old-timers recall the days of the long ago when Metamora was a bustling village and was the seat of most of the litigation of central Illinois. It was the headquarters of the Eighth judicial district before the conflict between the north and the south and was regarded in those days as one of the future great cities of the state.

The railroad, with one exception passed Metamora by and the loss of the county seat was the climax, a blow from which the place has never recovered.

Days of Memories.

A halo of rare old memories clusters around the venerable structure. Robert Ingersoll, great orator and lawyer, and always "put up" at the equally historic Metamora House, conducted for a half-century by Mrs. Sears. Years afterwards, when touring Europe, he wrote a series of letters for publication in the metropolitan papers of the United States. In one of these he alluded to the snow on the streets of Paris as being of the color of the linoleum in the Metamora House during the second week of court.

The lawyers found the ample porches of the old-time tavern ideal upon which to exchange stories after court had adjourned. Lincoln, who was the leading narrator, was always surrounded by an attentive group. Cassius Irving owns the hotel which was always occupied by Lincoln. The great one-story gateway came to Metamora on horseback as the railroad was not constructed into Metamora until after the Civil war.

Was County Seat.

For more than 50 years Metamora was the county seat of Woodford county, but the more enterprising Eureka succeeded in inducing the voters to transfer it in 1857 and, since then, Metamora has lost much of its former activity. The old courthouse was deemed to the city and has since been used as a theater, public meeting place and for other purposes. The local post of the American Legion has quarters there. Civil war veterans also meet there, and with old-timers recall the days of the long ago when Metamora was a bustling village and was the seat of most of the litigation of central Illinois. It was the headquarters of the Eighth judicial district before the conflict between the north and the south and was regarded in those days as one of the future great cities of the state.

The railroad, with one exception passed Metamora by and the loss of the county seat was the climax, a blow from which the place has never recovered.

Days of Memories.

A halo of rare old memories clusters around the venerable structure. Robert Ingersoll, great orator and lawyer, and always "put up" at the equally historic Metamora House, conducted for a half-century by Mrs. Sears. Years afterwards, when touring Europe, he wrote a series of letters for publication in the metropolitan papers of the United States. In one of these he alluded to the snow on the streets of Paris as being of the color of the linoleum in the Metamora House during the second week of court.

The lawyers found the ample porches of the old-time tavern ideal upon which to exchange stories after court had adjourned. Lincoln, who was the leading narrator, was always surrounded by an attentive group. Cassius Irving owns the hotel which was always occupied by Lincoln. The great one-story gateway came to Metamora on horseback as the railroad was not constructed into Metamora until after the Civil war.

Was County Seat.

Mexico Cries Protests
at Profit Sharing Law
Proposed in Vera Cruz

[An Associated Press.]

Mexico City—A law recently passed and promulgated in the state of Vera Cruz to permit workmen to share in the profits of any industry in that state has met with much protest, and threat is made that it there is any attempt to carry it into effect a general paralysis of industry will result.

The law calls for the establishment of a commission of seven, three employers and three workmen and a chairman selected jointly, in each municipality in the state which, at least once annually, shall call for the books of all industrial concerns and after a careful audit, shall name the share of the laborers. The workmen are to receive not less than 10 per cent of the total net profits. No maximum is set.

The chairman is to be named by the president of the municipality if his selection cannot be mutually agreed upon by the employers and the workmen. It is pointed out by those who oppose the law that this will almost always result in the naming of a workman inasmuch as virtually all the presidents of municipalities are laborers.

The profits to be divided, according to the law, "will be understood to be the net earnings realized in the business after taking into consideration the interest and the amortization of the capital invested. The interest will not exceed six per cent per annum and the amortization will be adjusted according to the nature of the capital, but must never exceed."

Beginning on Ground Floor.

"Beacon"—I see a vocational school for its employees has been established in an 18th mine 14,000 feet underground.

"Baker"—Evidently trying to make deep thinkers of the men.—Yonkers Statesman.

Caught Both Ways.

"Did the traffic cop arrest you?"

"Twice," replied Mr. Chuggins. "When I couldn't stop he arrested me for speed and when I finally stopped and couldn't start he arrested me for blocking the traffic."—Washington Star.

Can no more grow up than Peter Pan and that is why her latest production

"Through The Back Door"

is just the type of charming picture that you want to see her in... the kind that made her famous... intensely effective.

Please try to arrange to attend the matinees as the evenings will be very crowded.

PRICES:—Matinees: Children, 20c; Adults, 30c. Evenings: Children, 25c; Adults, 35c.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in making this announcement I am offering some unusually good news for all ages and sexes.

Pickford's coming! This production, the very latest by Mary Pickford, "Through The Back Door" is as wholesome as a healthy child and as charming as a burst of glorious sunshine. A picture that will long be remembered in which Miss Pickford brings a message of unusual happiness.

Showings will be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Children's Matinees on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

JAMES ZANIAS, Mgr.

Apollo Theatre.

Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

MARY PICKFORD

Manager Zanias' Message:

I feel that in

200 U. S. FAMILIES MOVING TO PERU

American Farmers Seek Fertile Lands in South American Country.

Lima, Peru.—A group of American farmers, comprising the advance guard of a colonization scheme said to involve more than 200 families from the western United States, arrived here recently enroute to the Pampa del Sacramento valley along the eastern head waters of the Amazon river, in northern Peru, where the colony is to be established.

The party is in charge of J. E. Schoenfeldt, of Omaha, Neb., formerly United States Indian agent for Oklahoma territory, who obtained for colonization purposes, a grant of 60,000 acres of agricultural and forestry lands from the Peruvian government last October.

Travel Up River.—After the preliminary location of the lands in the concession is completed, it is planned to bring the remaining colonists, numbering about 200, to the settlement via Para, Brazil, and the Amazon and Ucayali rivers. The former is navigable for its mouth on the Atlantic ocean to Iquitos, Peru, about 2,000 miles.

In an interview published in the West Coast Leader, Mr. Schoenfeldt said that, owing to drought and crop failure, a number of farmers in the central west had expressed their desire to seek more fertile and profitable fields.

"I decided to look over South America," he said, "since most of the American government's desirable vacant lands, that could be obtained at a low price, have been allotted to foreign immigrants. The colonists, who are chiefly from the west, are farmers of some means and they can secure their farms at a cost of a few cents per acre simple to their lands, as soon as 200 families have been settled on the concession."

About half of the tract, according to Mr. Schoenfeldt, consists of grassy plains, rolling hill land and valley. The remainder has forests. The land is said to be suitable for producing all kinds of agricultural products, especially sugar, cacao, cotton, rice, indigo and tobacco. The farms will be divided into tracts of from 500 to 1,000 acres with an average of about 1,000 acres for each family.

LODGE NEWS

The regular meeting of the G. U. G. will be held in the Terephorant hall at 8 p. m.

Julius Toubert, Pres.
W. R. C. will meet at 7:30 Tuesday in the East Side Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Emma Winslow, sec'y. Janesville Lodge, No. 55, F. & A. M. will meet in Stated Communication this evening at 8 p. m. in the 2d M. Degree. Visiting brothers welcome.

When you think of photographs think of Hess's Studio.

DOUGHERTY EXPOSES BLACKMAIL IN CASE
BEFORE U. S. COURT

Stunning disclosures were made by United States District Attorney William M. Dougherty, Janesville, in his introductory address in a federal court case, where Thomas Tolleson, at Superior, where Thomas Tolleson, former cashier of the Alliance State bank of Superior was placed on trial for illegal and improper use of the mails.

The government will contend that Tolleson sent W. N. Nicholson, a former president of the Anchor-Sabin building company, to his home in Duluth, stating that unless $500 was paid him, the residence of Nicholson would be blown up. Several of the threatening letters alleged to have been written by Tolleson were introduced by District Attorney Dougherty.

SAMSON READY TO MEET EMERGENCIES

When any trouble occurs in the future on the high line which connects Janesville off without sufficient power as it did in the storm Friday, the Samson Tractor plant will be ready to supply current, if the Janesville Electric company suggests in making this arrangement, according to Manager W. R. Schmidley.

Down by the Sea.
"Couldn't you learn to love me."

"How long are you here for?"
"A week."

"What's the use?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Just So.
"What's the big about?"
"Whether my wife or I should split the land."

"Aw, bury the hatchet!"
"That wouldn't help. We need the hatchet!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

LAWYER RETAINED
BY MRS. OBENCHAIN

Lecompte Davis.

Lecompte Davis, brilliant criminal lawyer of Los Angeles, has been retained by Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain in her fight for freedom and exoneration of the charge of murdering J. Delton Kennedy, one of her former sweethearts. Davis won fame as one of the attorneys for the state in the McNamara murder trial in Los Angeles in 1910.

ANENT THE BOBBED HAIR QUESTION

THE ANCIENT EGYPTIAN HAIR STYLE COPIED THE BOBBED HAIR FROM THE SPHINX.

THE BOBBED HAIR VAMP.

IT'S HARD FOR BOBBED HAIR GIRLS TO GET A JOB—PROPRIETORS SEEM TO PREFER THE KIND WITH EAR BUNS AND PUFFS THAT LOOK LIKE FIAT ISLAND BELLS.

YOU'LL DO REPORT TO MISS PRIM!

NO BOBBED HAIR ONES NEED APPLY! BIG DEPT. STORE.

OVERCOAT STOLEN.

MAD DOG SHOT.

PLAYGROUNDS TO CLOSE, SATURDAY.

PIG PORK LOIN ROAST.

BOSTON BUTT PORK ROAST.

PURE HOME MADE BULK PORK SAUSAGE.

BORRANS RETURNS FROM STATE MEET.

POSITIONS THAT PAY WELL.

ELBERTA PEACHES.

CARR'S CASH AND CARRY GROCERY.

BEST CREAMERY BUTTER.

BEST WHITE POTATOES.

PECK 65c.

BUSHEL $2.50.

TOTE THE BASKET.

CASH IS KING.

WE SELL SKINNER'S.

THE HIGHEST GRADE MACARONI.

SPAGHETTI, EGG NOODLES AND OTHER MACARONI PRODUCTS.

CARR'S GROCERY.

24 N. MAIN ST.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE FOR SALE.

1502 W. BLUFF ST.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Captain Kidd Not Real Pirate; Hanging Result of Politics, Assertion

[By Associated Press.]
Boston—Song and story are wrong. Captain Kidd was not a pirate and his fabled treasure does not exist. His hanging as a pirate and murderer at London in 1701 was to satisfy the political exigencies of the time.

These are the findings of John H. Edmonds, state archivist for Massachusetts, as announced in a lecture at the Old South Meeting house, Boston, last night. Edmonds was discussing "Lord Belmont and the Pirates."

Lord Belmont, he said, was appointed governor of New England in 1685, with a special mission to suppress piracy.

Kidd of Good Repute.
"Before England," Mr. Edmonds contended, "the great Captain William Kidd, a privateer, man of good repute from New York, to proceed against pirates in a ship called the Adventure Galley, on a 'no-capture-no-pay' basis. The officers included Captain Kidd, Robert Livingston, Lord Chancellor Somers, the Earl of Orford (first lord of the admiralty), the Earl of Romney, and the Duke of Shrewsbury (secretary of state)."

Belmont, he said, was appointed governor of New England in 1685, with a special mission to suppress piracy.

On Sept. 6, 1685, with a "cray" crew and a privateer crew, Captain Kidd proceeded on his mission. He picked up several pirates, including a Boston ship of 200 tons and a Bengali merchantman of 300 tons, both having French papers and being lawful prizes.

Taken by Trickery.
He came to New York and then to Boston, through the trickery of Belmont, who promised him safe conduct. With the remnant of his crew he was arrested, sent to England, tried for murder and piracy, convicted, and hung on Execution Dock, Friday, May 23, 1701, to satisfy the political exigencies of the times. It was either Lord Belmont, the great champion of the first lord of the admiralty, the secretaries of state or Captain Kidd, and under this circumstance he had no chance. Confusion and perjury are plainly evident in his trial, the French papers, which would have cleared him of the piracy charge, though produced in parliament, were suppressed in the admiralty court. The last said about Belmont's part in the matter the better. He fooled Kidd, he fooled his council, and worst of it is, he allowed it to his letters to the lords of the trade.

The Captain Kidd of today is a composite pirate made up of all who frequented our shores from 1637 to 1837. Propaganda of the worst kind blackened the reputation of a man of whom a recognized French authority says: "It may be well doubted whether any man in equally try."

SAMPICA TAXI IS SERVICE

Office at Murphy's Cigar Store
315 W. Milwaukee St.

Phones 442 Bell.
R. C. 153 Red.

Lowest rates on out of town trips.
Day or Night Service

The Richest
Malt Extract
Made

Hop Flavored Puritan

MALT
SUGAR SYRUP

At any dealer
C. ED. MOS
GROCER CO.

E. A. ROESLING

Cor. Center & Western Aves.
7 Phones, all 128.

Elberta Peaches

$1.65 Box

Best for canning or the table.
Lombard Canning, Piquette, Mich.
$1.10 pk.

Bartlett Canning Peaches, $1.10 pk.

Small Pickling Cucumbers, 50c hundred.

Large bunch Fresh Dill 25c.

Fancy Slicing Tomatoes, 5c lb.

Fancy Slicing Cucumbers, 3c 5c.

Home Grown Canteleoupes, chick pink meats, 15c.

Fresh Watermelons 20c.

3 cans Picnic Baked Beans 25c.

3 Jersey Corn Flakes 25c.

Fresh Cottage Cheese 10c.

Federal Bakery Products.

Dedrick Bros.

Fresh Spareribs

Lb. 12½c

Fresh Beef Liver, lb., 15c.

Fresh Pork Liver, lb., 10c.

Fresh Veal Liver.

Home Made Pig Pork.

Sausage, bulk and link.

Brick and Limburger Cheese.

J. F. SCHOOFF

14 S. River St.

Bell 15-16. R. C. 982-651.

RUSH WORK ON NEW ORNAMENTAL POSTS

Janesville will have the most extensive system of ornamental street lighting of any third class city in Wisconsin when the system now being installed is completed, according to W. R. Schmidley, manager of the Janesville Electric company, which has the contract for its installation. The posts for the lights will all be in place at the end of the week, Mr. Schmidley stated.

A difficult piece of work is the laying of the cable underground for the posts. A special drilling machine is used so that the street paving does not have to be torn up for the entire length of the cable.

Photos made in your home is our specialty. 418 W. Mill. St. Advertisement.

Down and Out

You have seen a great many people down and out perhaps. But you never saw one who had made it a rule, and stuck to it all his life, to save a little of all he earned and put it in the bank.

Make this bank your bank.

The First National Bank

Janesville, Wis.

Cut Down That Shoe Bill

Get those old shoes out of your closet; bring them in and see if they're not worth repairing.

Chances are we can give them a new lease on life and incidentally SAVE you the price of a new pair of shoes.

We're proud of our work! YOU will be, too.

Chas. Weber

37 S. Main St.

We carry a complete line of men's and boys' shoes in stock.

Business Directory

WALTER A. SCHULTZ

MASTER PLUMBER

Plumbing and heating in all its branches. Special attention given to country and suburban homes. Estimates will be cheerfully given. Cor. Center & State Sts. Bell Phone 1415.

NELSON BROS.

Undertaking & Livery

21-25 Court St.

Wis. Tel. 291. Rock Co. 58.

Automobiles furnished for funerals.

E. H. DAMROW, D. C.

CHIROPRACTOR

Palmer School Graduate

200 JACKMAN BLOCK

Ray Laboratory

PHONES: Office, 970. No residence, phone until Sept. 1st.

HOURS: 10 to 12 a. m.; 2 to 5 p. m. Evenings

LYNN A. WHALEY

COUNTY CORONER

Undertaker and Funeral Director.

15 N. Jackson, Lady Assistant.

R. C. 507—PHONES—Bell 208.

Private Ambulance Service

—Day and Night—

Dr. Egbert A. Worden

Dentist

123 W. Milwaukee St.

X-Ray Examination

Office open every evening and Sunday.

R. C. Phone 1057 Red. Bell 45

CHIROPRACTOR

G. H. Angstrom

Palmer School Graduate 1912.

Both phones 57, 405 Jackson Bldg.

Hours: 1 to 4; 5 to 7:45 p. m.

Janesville, Wisconsin.

JANESVILLE TENT AND AWNING CO.

CANVAS, GOODS, TRUCK COVERS

Estimates Gladly Furnished

Any Time

Office with George & Clemons.

407 W. Milwaukee St.

R. C. 406.

THE ROCK COUNTY NATIONAL BANK

SAVINGS & TRUST CO.

"The Bank for Bonds"

E. A. ROESLING

CASH & CARRY STORE

East End Racine St. Bridge.

3 Bars Hard Water

Castile Soap, 25c

Bulk Oatmeal, lb., 5c.

Marshmallow Cream, jar, 50c.

Fresh Macaroni, lb., 10c.

5 lb. sack Corn Meal, 10c.

Pt. Bottle Grape Juice, 35c.

Small Glass Mustard, 10c.

Elston's Wheat Food, pkg., 20c.

Argo Bulk Starch, lb., 10c.

15 lb. box Jelly Beans, while they last, 10c.

Have You Reviewed Your Will Lately?

How long ago did you draw your will? If you were making it now would you have it read the same?

It would be wise for you and your lawyer to look it over carefully and make any necessary revisions to meet your present situation.

And in bringing it up to date, be sure the Rock County Savings and Trust Co., is named to act as your Executor or Trustee.

Did you get your copy of our booklet "Safeguarding Your Family's Future"?

THE ROCK COUNTY NATIONAL BANK

SAVINGS & TRUST CO.

"The Bank for Bonds"

Business Offers You Permanent, Profitable Employment, and a Thousand Opportunities for Advancement

Right Now, while thousands of men and women are looking for work, business offers permanent, profitable employment and a thousand opportunities for advancement.

Right Now, while thousands of men and women suddenly find their wages cut off, business stands ready to pay you premium salaries for your services. Right now, while thousands of men and women would be glad to get any kind of work, business offers you its choicest and richest opportunities.

Right Now, you are face to face with happiness, comfort and opportunity—and unemployment. You can have either one.

Business no longer clamors for production—what it needs is DEMAND. Business no longer clamors for brains—it needs brains—new market, new method, new sales and more of them. It needs young men and women to help solve today's problems.

A BUSINESS TRAINING IS THE WAY TO SUCCESS

If you would insure your future against unemployment—if you would keep your name on the payroll—a business education is what you need. If you are off the payroll today it shows that your training is either not of the right kind or you lack the skill which makes your service in demand.

Not a Graduate of This School Out of a Position

Would you like an education that enables you to draw your salary 52 weeks in the year? It's a good investment, an education that guarantees such a future.

FALL TERM OPENS TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

Enrollment Week Aug. 23, to Sept. 6.

Many have already made application. We allot desks in the order of enrollment. Write for enrollment blank and full information free.

Janesville Business College

The Accredited School

"The Business School With the University Standard."

Janesville, Wis.

"The Love Pendulum"

By MARION RUBINCAM

CHAPTER II.
But once started on the road to recovery, I soon gained strength—and soon that, a clear head.
That very day I remembered the owner of the voice—my own name—began to come back to me. I remembered that I was a girl, I remembered that people talked of influence. I remembered trying to go to a dance, or some silly party, with not being able to go, and the collapse of my body at the very door of my aunt's house.

Little things began coming back to me, very slowly, as though I was waking up from a long sleep. But the things I remembered seemed too impersonal, almost as though they had happened to someone else and not to me.

The next clear thing was the opening of a white door opposite my bed, and the entrance of the chubbiest, pinkest, sweetest face I remembered ever seeing. She wore the white dress of the nurse and attendants—evidently she was my nurse.

For one day I felt rather than saw her—I merely knew that whenever she came near me I felt stronger and better.

In a few days I asked her suddenly for a mirror.

"That shows you're well," she said, smiling at me as she stood in my room. She had a little mouth, a deep pink line in her round pink face, and when she smiled she showed over so many teeth. Her voice was a delight—it had just enough firmness to give it a pleasant and cheerful tone.

"I'll tell the doctor you're wanting new to powder your pretty nose. They all want to when they begin to get well."

I said fretfully, "I never use powder, I hate it."

"Of course. No one with a skin like yours needs powder now, but the mirror—let me tell the doctor what this morning call."

"There's a mirror on the dresser."

"Now you're dreaming—like you've been doing for some weeks, miss."

But I knew there was a mirror—my own mirror of mottled loveliness. I could see it from the bed. The chief refusal irritated me. I felt suspicious of everything.

But the nurse was gone and I had not strength to raise my arm, much less get up and get the mirror.

Then the nurse came back, and she had a cup over my head—she recognized as having been mine before. Then she brought the mirror and held it out for me to see.

All I could find was that my skin was a dead white—the most curious white I had ever seen, white with blue in it. My eyes were blue, but they looked haggard and I didn't want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not want to see them. My lips did not

Gas Buggies—You've got to watch your discard.

Today's Short Story

By GEORGE T. BYE

Illustrations by WILLIAM STEVENS

A Kite With A Tale.

Betty Larkins was sunset-dreaming, leaning out on the fire escape of her apartment when with a flutter and a dash a boy's kite suddenly fell out of the sky, nearly missing her head, and becoming entangled in the steel railing of the fire escape.

The string went straight up, and when she had recovered her breath she guessed that the kite was a girl, and she was in no pleasant mood when an apologetic voice called down to her:

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

"Thank you so much. You're awfully kind. I suppose I am stupid. This kite is a girl, and I got her for trying to show my nephew how to fly his kite."

Betty looked up in the roof cornice, into a most persuasive young man's face. His view downward was into the disturbed eyes of the girl, most refreshing girl he believed he had ever seen. Betty thought it very unfortunate she had encountered such a man at such close proximity under such unfavorable conditions.

She didn't know that the alluring coloring in her face, and the sparkle in her eyes, and the tricks the wind played with her hair and dress, she leaned back against the fire-escape railing, really put the man in his commanding position at the disadvantage.

Instead of pulling up the kite, he went down the fire-escape to fetch it. Betty, who was a good housewife, was a bit of a blushing. "One has to talk crossly to youngsters to get their attention instantly. And I'm afraid I poked a hole in the kite in extracting it. I have a moment and would love to mend it. Just a moment and I'll get the paste."

Daintily she slid back into the house. The man brushed his hair and scratched his head. Then he frowned. His little nephew was calling to him to hurry up with that kite.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

Dinner Stories

By GEORGE T. BYE

Illustrations by WILLIAM STEVENS

A Kite With A Tale.

Betty Larkins was sunset-dreaming, leaning out on the fire escape of her apartment when with a flutter and a dash a boy's kite suddenly fell out of the sky, nearly missing her head, and becoming entangled in the steel railing of the fire escape.

The string went straight up, and when she had recovered her breath she guessed that the kite was a girl, and she was in no pleasant mood when an apologetic voice called down to her:

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

"Thank you so much. You're awfully kind. I suppose I am stupid. This kite is a girl, and I got her for trying to show my nephew how to fly his kite."

Betty looked up in the roof cornice, into a most persuasive young man's face. His view downward was into the disturbed eyes of the girl, most refreshing girl he believed he had ever seen. Betty thought it very unfortunate she had encountered such a man at such close proximity under such unfavorable conditions.

She didn't know that the alluring coloring in her face, and the sparkle in her eyes, and the tricks the wind played with her hair and dress, she leaned back against the fire-escape railing, really put the man in his commanding position at the disadvantage.

Instead of pulling up the kite, he went down the fire-escape to fetch it. Betty, who was a good housewife, was a bit of a blushing. "One has to talk crossly to youngsters to get their attention instantly. And I'm afraid I poked a hole in the kite in extracting it. I have a moment and would love to mend it. Just a moment and I'll get the paste."

Daintily she slid back into the house. The man brushed his hair and scratched his head. Then he frowned. His little nephew was calling to him to hurry up with that kite.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

EMERALD GROVE

By GEORGE T. BYE

Illustrations by WILLIAM STEVENS

A Kite With A Tale.

Betty Larkins was sunset-dreaming, leaning out on the fire escape of her apartment when with a flutter and a dash a boy's kite suddenly fell out of the sky, nearly missing her head, and becoming entangled in the steel railing of the fire escape.

The string went straight up, and when she had recovered her breath she guessed that the kite was a girl, and she was in no pleasant mood when an apologetic voice called down to her:

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

"Thank you so much. You're awfully kind. I suppose I am stupid. This kite is a girl, and I got her for trying to show my nephew how to fly his kite."

Betty looked up in the roof cornice, into a most persuasive young man's face. His view downward was into the disturbed eyes of the girl, most refreshing girl he believed he had ever seen. Betty thought it very unfortunate she had encountered such a man at such close proximity under such unfavorable conditions.

She didn't know that the alluring coloring in her face, and the sparkle in her eyes, and the tricks the wind played with her hair and dress, she leaned back against the fire-escape railing, really put the man in his commanding position at the disadvantage.

Instead of pulling up the kite, he went down the fire-escape to fetch it. Betty, who was a good housewife, was a bit of a blushing. "One has to talk crossly to youngsters to get their attention instantly. And I'm afraid I poked a hole in the kite in extracting it. I have a moment and would love to mend it. Just a moment and I'll get the paste."

Daintily she slid back into the house. The man brushed his hair and scratched his head. Then he frowned. His little nephew was calling to him to hurry up with that kite.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

"Hey, stupid! You'll tear your kite!"

how long the pasting would have taken but for a shrill cry from above. "For the love of Mike, hurry up!" A tug at the string was peremptory. "Just a minute, Johnny boy," called the man, pleasantly to begin thanking Betty. It was a long beginning and Betty would have gone no longer but for that shrill voice again. "Aw, get her name. You can talk to her tonight. So he got her name, after introducing himself. That good breeze carried the kite high, but not so high as the man's spirit—nor Johnny's, for he got a quarter for his part in the affair.

"Shut up, will you?" he answered.

BEAUTY CHATS

by Edna Kent Forbes

A STIMULATING FACE TREATMENT

When we talk about beauty treatments we come down finally to one principle that the face needs mostly is simply stimulation. If you go out for a walk in the cold air, the wind stimulates the skin and you come in with a clear complexion and glowing cheeks, and a wonderful feeling of freshness. When you go to the seaside the salt air and the salt water sting and stimulate the skin, and do it a great deal of good.

But there is nothing in our everyday life to stimulate the skin, and much to harm it. Therefore a little artificial stimulation is a good thing. You can give yourself stimulating treatment every time you wash your face.

If you have an oily skin you need not use cold cream, but if you have a dry skin massage the face with a little skin massage first, because the stimulating treatment is more vigorous than the ordinary face wash.

First of all, hold an old towel from beneath two or three times until the skin is red and glowing. Then use your cold cream if the skin is dry. In any case rub in a little lather from a mild soap, preferably castile. Then rinse with cold water to close the pores of the skin. If possible follow this by a five or ten minute rub with a piece of ice. There is nothing better for shrinking large pores, for making the skin firm and for bringing color into the face than an ice rub. If you cannot get ice, very cold water with a little salt in it is an excellent substitute.

Rinse again with cold water to close the pores of the skin. If possible follow this by a five or ten minute rub with a piece of ice. There is nothing better for shrinking large pores, for making the skin firm and for bringing color into the face than an ice rub. If you cannot get ice, very cold water with a little salt in it is an excellent substitute.

Rinse again with cold water to close the pores of the skin. If possible follow this by a five or ten minute rub with a piece of ice. There is nothing better for shrinking large pores, for making the skin firm and for bringing color into

